Dear Valued Patrons,

Welcome to the 25th Anniversary of JerkFest Toronto!

It is with tremendous pride and gratitude that we welcome you to this special milestone as we celebrate 25 years of bringing together the very best of Caribbean food, music and culture. What began as a simple vision has grown into one of Canada's premier Caribbean festivals, made possible by the unwavering support of our patrons, sponsors, vendors, volunteers, artists and community partners.

This year's celebration promises to be our biggest and most exciting yet. From the unmistakable flavours of authentic jerk cuisine to an outstanding lineup of Caribbean entertainment, every aspect of the festival has been thoughtfully curated to create an unforgettable experience for you, your family and your friends.

As you explore the festival grounds, we encourage you to savour the food, enjoy the performances, support our vendors, and embrace the rich traditions and vibrant spirit of the Caribbean. JerkFest Toronto has always been about more than great food and music, it is about bringing people together, celebrating our shared diversity, and creating lasting memories.

As we mark this silver anniversary, we reflect with pride on how far we have come and look ahead with excitement to the future. Our commitment remains the same: to provide a safe, welcoming and inclusive festival where everyone can come together to celebrate culture, community and connection.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the entire organizing team, thank you for being part of this incredible 25-year journey. Your continued support has made this milestone possible, and we are honoured to celebrate it with you.

Welcome to JerkFest Toronto – It's your jerk, your music & your vibes.
Let the celebration begin!

Sincerely,
Gregory McKnight
Chairman
Caribbean Promotions Arts & Culture Inc.

OLG proudly supports community festivals and events across Ontario, like JerkFest Toronto presented by TD. Let's make memories, share smiles, and celebrate Caribbean culture – together!

OLG est fière de soutenir des festivals et des événements communautaires partout en Ontario, comme JerkFest Toronto, présenté par TD. Ensemble, créons des souvenirs, partageons des sourires et célébrons la culture des Caraïbes!

Proclamation

JerkFest Day

June 16, 2026

WHEREAS June 16 marks the 25th anniversary of the International Jerk Food and Music Festival (JerkFest) in Toronto.

JerkFest Day recognizes the festival's role in highlighting Jamaican food, music and cultural traditions while bringing residents and visitors together through community participation and shared experiences.

Toronto's Jamaican community continues to contribute to the city's cultural life and remains an important part of Toronto's diverse communities.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Olivia Chow, on behalf of Toronto City Council, do hereby proclaim June 16, 2026, as "JerkFest Day" in the City of Toronto.

Olivia Chow
Mayor of Toronto

Putting people at the centre of everything we do.

Cultural festivals create space to celebrate the things that shape us – our stories, food, music, and art. That's why we're proud to support cultural experiences that help people feel welcome, seen, and connected.

Jamaican Jerk Food History

Presented by

The island of Jamaica is famous for its beautiful beaches, reggae music, Blue Mountain coffee, its cheerful people and their language, patois and of course its exotic foods. No visit to the island is complete until you have tried “Jamaican Jerk”.

Jerk is a unique way of preserving, preparing and cooking meat initially pork was the meat of choice to jerk however over the years this has expanded to include chicken, fish, seafood and other exotic offerings such as frog legs and alligator.

Its origins date back to the native Arawak Indians traditional method of using Jamaican Pimento (allspice) to season and smoke meat. Recipes, technique and secret ingredients have been handed down through generations as competition and pride runs high among cooks and foodies in Jamaica.

Pimento and scotch bonnet pepper are common to all mixtures, however additional herbs and spices sometimes up to 30 or more including thyme, scallion, garlic cinnamon and nutmeg are included. The meat is seasoned with either a dry seasoning mix or a wet seasoning rub and normally left overnight to marinate. The meat is basted with the seasoning then grilled slowly on a smokey wood fire, preferable pimento wood.

To save time, dry and wet commercial jerk seasoning can be purchased at your local grocery store and is available in mild, medium or hot under the Grace brand. However if you are adventurous, experiment and create your own secret Jerk Seasoning.

Jamaican Jerk Chicken Recipe

By Paul Chung

For best results, let the chicken marinate overnight, so the seasoning has time to thoroughly penetrate the meat. The chicken can also be roasted in the oven if desired.

INGREDIENT CHECKLIST

- 1 medium onion, coarsely chopped
- 3 medium scallions, chopped
- 2 Scotch bonnet chiles, chopped
- 2 garlic cloves, chopped
- 1 tablespoon five-spice powder
- 1 tablespoon allspice berries, coarsely ground
- 1 tablespoon coarsely ground pepper
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme, crumbled
- 1 teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup soy sauce
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- Two 3 1/2- to 4-pound chickens, quartered

DIRECTIONS

• Step 1

In a food processor, combine the onion, scallions, chiles, garlic, five-spice powder, allspice, pepper, thyme, nutmeg and salt; process to a coarse paste. With the machine on, add the soy sauce and oil in a steady stream. Pour the marinade into a large, shallow dish, add the chicken and turn to coat. Cover and refrigerate overnight. Bring the chicken to room temperature before proceeding.

• Step 2

Light a grill. Grill the chicken over a medium-hot fire, turning occasionally, until well browned and cooked through, 35 to 40 minutes. (Cover the grill for a smokier flavor.) Transfer the chicken to a platter and serve.

Know the Signs of an Opioid Overdose

Blue lips or nails

Dizziness and confusion

Can't be woken up

Choking, gurgling or snoring sounds

Slow, weak or no breathing

Drowsiness or difficulty staying awake

Saving a life is the number one priority during an overdose

Even if you've taken drugs or have some on you, the Good Samaritan law protects you from:

- Simple drug possession charges
- Violation of conditions regarding simple possession in:

pre-trial release | conditional sentences | probation orders | parole

This law applies to the person who has overdosed, the person who seeks help and anyone at the scene when help arrives.

Suspect an Overdose?

CALL 911 or your local emergency number

Administer naloxone if you have it

Stay with the person until help arrives

You have the power to save a life.
